Crim. No. 10-66 (CCC)

The defendant understands that in relation to the violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 2252(a)(4)(B), charged in Count Four, that is, possession of child pornography, he may be sentenced to a maximum term of imprisonment of up to ten (10) years, a fine not to exceed two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000), and a term of supervised release of at least five (5) years up to life, pursuant Title 18, United States Code, Sections 2252(a)(4)(B), 3571(b)(3) and 3583(k).

Plea Agreement
United States v. Armando Rodríguez-Rodríguez
Crim. No. 10-66 (CCC)

6. RULE 11(c)(1)(C) WARNINGS

Pursuant to Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure 11(c)(1)(C), defendant understands that the sentence agreed to between the parties may or may not be in accordance with the advisory Sentencing Guidelines, Title 18 United States Code, Section 3551, et. seq. (hereinafter the "Guidelines") and may or may not be pursuant the statutory minimum imposed by statute. The defendant understands that the parties have agreed to a specific sentence because all parties understand that it is the appropriate disposition of this case. If the Court accepts this Plea Agreement, the Court is bound by the parties' sentencing recommendation. However, the defendant understands that the Court may reject that recommendation. Fed.R.Crim.Pro. 11(c)(5)(B). If the Court rejects the recommendation, the defendant understands that he then may withdraw his guilty plea. Fed.R.Crim.Pro. 11(c)(5)(B). But if the Court rejects the Plea Agreement, and the defendant does not withdraw his guilty plea, the defendant understands that the Court may dispose of the case less favorably toward him than this Plea Agreement contemplated. Fed.R.Crim.Pro. 11(c)(5)(C). In addition, should the Court reject the proposed sentence recommendation in this agreement, the United States would similarly have the right to withdraw from the plea agreement entirely. The defendant also acknowledges that he is aware that parole has been abolished.

7. SENTENCING GUIDELINES CALCULATIONS

Although the Guidelines are now advisory in nature, the sentencing court, in imposing sentence, is required to consider the Guideline "sentencing range established for the applicable category of the offense committed by the defendant". United States v. Booker, 125 S.Ct. 738 (2005). Therefore, the

8. SENTENCE RECOMMENDATION

In exchange for pleading guilty to all counts in the Superseding Indictment (6 counts in all), admitting the Forfeiture Allegation and waiving his right to appeal, the United States agrees to allow the defendant to argue for a sentence of incarceration as low as 360 months (30 years), while the United States reserves the right to argue for a sentence as high as 456 months (38 years). The parties further agree to leave in the sound discretion of the Court how much time above 5 years, if any, to which the defendant should be sentenced for supervised release upon release from prison. The defendant agrees that this sentence is reasonable pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 3553 (a).

9. NO FURTHER ADJUSTMENTS OR DEPARTURES

The United States and the defendant agree that no further adjustments or departures to the defendant's base offense level shall be sought by the parties. The parties agree that any request by the defendant for an adjustment, departure, or a lower sentence will be considered a material breach of this Plea Agreement and the United States will be able to request the withdrawal of the Plea Agreement.

APP BNA

10. NO STIPULATION AS TO CRIMINAL HISTORY CATEGORY

The parties make no stipulation as to defendant's Criminal History Category.

11. WAIVER OF APPEAL

The defendant hereby agrees that if this Honorable Court accepts this agreement and sentences him within the range described in Paragraph 8 above, the defendant waives and surrenders his right to appeal the conviction and sentence in this case.

12. SATISFACTION WITH COUNSEL

The defendant represents to the Court to be satisfied with his counsel, Francisco Adams-Quesada, and indicates that Mr. Adams-Quesada has rendered effective legal assistance.

13. RIGHTS SURRENDERED BY DEFENDANT THROUGH GUILTY PLEA

Defendant understands that by entering into this agreement, defendant surrenders certain rights as provided in this agreement. Defendant understands that the rights of criminal defendants include the following:

a. If the defendant had persisted in a plea of not guilty to the charges, defendant would have had the right to a speedy jury trial with the assistance of counsel. The trial may be conducted by a judge sitting without a jury if the defendant, the United States and the judge agree.

b. If a jury trial is conducted, the jury would be composed of twelve lay persons selected at random. The defendant and the defendant's attorney would assist in selecting the jurors by removing prospective jurors for cause where actual bias or other disqualification is shown, or by removing prospective jurors without cause by exercising peremptory challenges. The jury would have to agree, unanimously, before it could return a verdict of either guilty or not guilty. The jury would be instructed that the defendant is presumed innocent, that it could not convict the defendant unless, after hearing all the evidence, it was persuaded of the defendant's guilt beyond a reasonable doubt, and that it was to consider each charge separately.

c. If a trial is held by the judge without a jury, the judge would find the facts and, after hearing all the evidence and considering each count separately, determine whether or not the evidence established the defendant's guilt beyond a reasonable doubt.

d. At a trial, the United States would be required to present its witnesses and other evidence against the defendant. The defendant would be able to confront those witnesses and defendant's attorney would be able to cross-examine them. In turn, the defendant could present witnesses and other evidence on defendant's own behalf. If the witnesses for the defendant would not appear voluntarily, defendant could require their attendance through the subpoena power of the Court.

e. At a trial, the defendant could rely on the privilege against self-incrimination to decline to testify, and no inference of guilty could be drawn from the defendant's refusal to testify. If the defendant desired to do so, the defendant could testify on the defendant's own behalf.

14. STATEMENT OF FACTS

*All
RGA* The accompanying Statement of Facts signed by the defendant is hereby incorporated into this Plea Agreement. Defendant adopts the Statement of Facts and agrees that the facts therein are accurate in every respect and, had the matter proceeded to trial, that the United States would have proven those facts beyond a reasonable doubt.

15. LIMITATIONS OF PLEA AGREEMENT

This plea agreement binds only the United States Attorney's Office for the District of Puerto Rico and the defendant; it does not bind any other federal district, state or local authorities.

16. ENTIRETY OF PLEA AGREEMENT

This written agreement constitutes the complete Plea Agreement between the United States, the defendant, and the defendant's counsel. The United States has made no promises or representations except as set forth in writing in this plea agreement and deny the existence of any other term and conditions not stated herein.

17. AMENDMENTS TO PLEA AGREEMENT

No other promises, terms or conditions will be entered unless in writing and signed by all parties.

18. VOLUNTARINESS OF GUILTY PLEA

The defendant acknowledges that no threats have been made against the defendant and that the defendant is pleading guilty freely and voluntarily because the defendant is guilty.

19. DISMISSAL OF REMAINING COUNTS

There are no remaining counts to be dismissed.

20. BREACH AND WAIVER

Alf FJD
The defendant understands and agrees that if the defendant breaches the plea agreement, the defendant may be prosecuted and sentenced for all of the offenses the defendant may have committed. The defendant agrees that if the defendant breaches this plea agreement, the Government reserves the right to take whatever steps are necessary to nullify the plea agreement, including the filing of a motion to withdraw from the plea agreement and/or to set aside the conviction and sentence. The defendant also agrees that if he is in breach of this plea agreement, the defendant is deemed to have waived any objection to the reinstatement of any charges under the indictment, information, or complaint which may have previously been dismissed or which may have not been previously prosecuted. The defendant further agrees that if he is in breach of this agreement, the defendant is deemed to have also waived objection to the filing of any additional charges against him.

21. IMPACT UPON CONVICTION

Defendant acknowledges that by pleading guilty and entering into this agreement he will have to Register as a Sex Offender pursuant to the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (“SORNA” or “the Act”), which is Title I of the Adam Walsh Child Protection and Safety Act of 2006 (P.L. 109-248) and Title 18, United States Code, Section 2250. As a registered Sex Offender, defendant further understands that his status as a Sex Offender, and related information, will be made public. Defendant further acknowledges that he may or may not be required to register for life.

22. FORFEITURE PROVISIONS

APR PTA

GOVERNMENT'S VERSION OF THE FACTS

In conjunction with the submission of the accompanying Plea Agreement in this case, the United States of America submits the following statement setting forth the United States' version of the facts leading to the defendant's acceptance of criminal responsibility.

The United States has provided full discovery to the defendant in accordance with Rule 16 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure. In addition, all of the witnesses needed by the United States to prove the elements of the offenses charged in the Superseding Indictment remain ready and available to testify. If this case had gone to trial, the United States would have proven beyond a reasonable doubt all of the elements of the offenses charged in the Superseding Indictment, including the following specific facts:

From in or about April 2007 to in or about August 2009, from in or about June 2005 to in or about January 2010, from in or about January 2009 to in or about April 2009, from in or about June 2009 to in or about January 2010, and from July 2008 to in or about January 2010, respectively, the defendant did employ, use, persuade, induce, entice, or coerce a female minor and four male minors, that is, J.F.H., J.A.C., A.R.M., A.R.O. and H.M.O., to engage in sexually explicit conduct, more specifically, the lascivious exhibition of their genital areas and performing sexual acts, for the purpose of producing visual depictions of such conduct, namely, still and video images, using a digital camera and a computer both of which had been mailed, shipped or transported in interstate or foreign commerce. All in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 2251(a).

AKH FMO

Pursuant to a law enforcement operation, agents from Homeland Security Investigations, Immigrations and Customs Enforcement (HSI-ICE) received information from the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico law enforcement authorities that the defendant had sexually molested a male minor for several years while he recorded the sexual acts. Further investigation conducted by HSI ICE Agents led them to the residence of defendant. On January 28, 2010, ICE Agents executed a search warrant at defendant's residence which resulted in the seizure of a Black "ZT" Laptop Computer; a 2GB Panasonic SD Card; a 4GB Toshiba SD Card; a Kodak Z740 Digital Camera, a KDS laptop computer, a generic desktop computer, an I-Phone with its charger and cover, a Motorola cell phone, a PSP and memory card, a Logitech web cam, a VHS tape, a floppy disk, a Kodak tripod, a camera case with cables, several DVDs and several CDs, and an Impact memory card (128MB).

During all relevant times herein, the defendant would either invite the minors to come to his residence or he would pick them up at their parents' residences and bring them to his residence located in Bayamón, Puerto Rico. Once at the defendant's residence, defendant would take the minor(s) to his bedroom, and record himself having sexual intercourse (either vaginal penetration with the female minor or anal penetration with the male minors) or having oral sex with one or more minors using a digital camera with a tripod located beside defendant's bed. The defendant would then transfer the videos from the digital camera onto his laptop computer. The defendant would also contact at least one of the minors via text messages using coded language indicating his need to see the minor or his wish to engage in sexual conduct. Defendant would also use a social network website to lure other minors to come to his home to engage in the same type of sexual conduct. The majority of the images found in defendant's camera and/or computers depicted minor males engaging in sexually explicit acts with other male minors and with the defendant himself; minor males exhibiting their genital areas; a female minor exhibiting her genital areas; and a female minor engaging in sexually explicit acts with the defendant. The defendant would also show one or more of these minors the sexually explicit images that he had recorded.

The visual depictions had traveled in interstate commerce by accessing and downloading the images from the internet onto the computer's hard drive and by storing the images within the computer, all of which were manufactured outside of Puerto Rico, namely Taiwan and China. Six hundred (600) images or more of child pornography were found in the digital media that was seized from the defendant's residence. All five of the minors identified above were under the age of 16 when they were video recorded engaging in sexually explicit conduct. One minor was also a relative of the defendant and was under the defendant's custody and control when the acts occurred.

The evidence the government would have presented at trial includes, inter alia, the testimony of law enforcement agents and digital forensic experts, the testimony of the minor victims, the contraband images seized from the defendant's computer and digital camera, as well as text messages exchanged between the defendant and one or more of the victims.
